

SECTION 12

Rules for Collegiate/Non-Collegiate/ Dis-Collegiate Candidates (Not applicable for the subjects under semester system)

Once admitted candidates are required to attend their classes from the very beginning of the session. Candidates who take admission after commencement of the session will have their percentage of class attendance counted from the very next day of their admission.

a) Collegiate Candidates - Students having attended at least 65% of the total lectures delivered to them in the session/year/semester will be deemed to have completed the said course and, hence, will be eligible to appear at the University Examination (vide Notification No. CSR/10/99).

* For M. Phil Course of studies, students are required to attend at least 75% of the total lectures delivered to them in the session to complete the said course (vide Notification no. CSR/10/99).

b) Non-Collegiate Candidates - The candidates, having attended 55% and above but below 65% of the total lectures delivered to them in the session/year/semester will be treated as Non-Collegiate candidates. They may be sent up at the University Examination if their short percentage is condoned by the appropriate authority. (vide Notification No. CSR/10/99).

* For M.Phil Course of studies, the students having attended 65% and above but below 75% of the total lectures delivered to them in the session will be treated as Non-Collegiate Students. They may be sent up at the University Examination if their short percentage is condoned by the appropriate authority (vide Notification no. CSR/10/99).

c) Dis-Collegiate Candidates - The candidates whose percentage of class attendance falls below 55% of the total lectures delivered to them in the session will be treated as Dis-Collegiate candidates. They are not eligible to appear at the University Examination. They may take re-admission (vide Section No. 13,) but this rule will not be applicable for the M.Com course (vide CSR/42/06)

* For M.Phil Course of studies, students having percentage of class attendance below 65% of the total Lectures delivered to them in the session will be treated as Dis-Collegiate students. They will not be eligible to appear at the University Examination (Vide Notification No. CSR/10/99).
